

Cultural Health Kako'o

POSITION SUMMARY: This position is responsible for assisting the Cultural Health Specialist with lā'au lapa'au and lomilomi classes, including growing, harvesting, and preparing lā'au for visits and classes. This position also serves as a research assistant on research projects related to lā'au lapa'au or lomilomi, and works in the context of the patient centered health care home.

EDUCATION AND/OR EXPERIENCE

- ❖ Certificate of graduation from an accredited Associate or Bachelor's program related to Health or Hawaiian Studies.
- ❖ Basic life support or CPR certification required.

KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES REQUIREMENTS

- ❖ Must have ability to read, comprehend, interpret, and apply knowledge to situations.
- ❖ Must be able to cultivate constructive, professional, interpersonal relationships.
- ❖ Must be able to work collaboratively with clinic providers so there is an exchange of knowledge about each other's practice.
- ❖ Must have willingness to continually improve and expand knowledge base and skills.
- ❖ Must have ability to communicate effectively with people.
- ❖ Must have ability to write reports, correspondence, speeches, and articles for publications that conform to prescribed style and format.
- ❖ Must have ability to effectively present information to top management, public groups, and/or Board of Directors.
- ❖ Must be skilled in computer applications.
- ❖ Aptitude for learning computer software helpful.
- ❖ Must have ability to maintain logs records and files. Attention to detail is useful.
- ❖ Must have ability to work independently, stays focus on a task with interruptions, and remains calm in a stressful atmosphere.