

Cultural Health Patient Service Representative

Waimānalo Health Center is dedicated to offering employees an exceptional work environment and offers competitive salaries and benefits. We are seeking a dedicated, talented, and team-oriented Cultural Health Patient Service Representative to join our `ohana (family) to support our mission and values.

Mission

Waimānalo Health Center is rooted in Native Hawaiian values and devoted to improving the health and wellness of all people, regardless of ability to pay, by providing comprehensive primary and preventive health care services of the highest quality.

Vision

Waimānalo Health Center is dedicated to the continuous advancement in quality healthcare while assuring universal access for all. We believe that our values of Aloha, Mālama I Ka Pono, Mālama I Ka `Ohana, and Mālama I Ka `Āina, enable our patient-centered healthcare home services to deeply focus on the shared role of healing oneself, `ohana, community, and `āina over generations.

Core Values and Guiding Principles

Our values at Waimānalo Health Center promote Hawaiian-centered diversity, equity, and inclusion by welcoming all members of the Ko`olaupoko community to access our holistic services ranging from traditional Hawaiian healing practices to Western medicine.

Aloha: We listen to people with our full attention, seeking to know them and understand their health care and wellness needs and aspirations for themselves, their family and community. We will respond, to the best of our abilities, as caring, compassionate, engaged, and professional partners in healthcare.

Mālama I Ka Pono: We know that quality healthcare starts with people's trust in our services and the excellence of our care for them and the resources entrusted to us to meet their needs. We are committed to maintaining their trust by treating people with respect and confidentiality, and by being open about our organizational practices and results, seeking to continuously improve our work.

Mālama I Ka `Ohana: We believe that wellness embraces the whole family, and we welcome their participation in the healthcare of their loved ones. Our belief extends from the Ahupua`a of Waimānalo throughout Ko`olaupoko where we build the foundation for good health and wellness for everyone, and we seek collaborative partners who share our values and vision.

Mālama I Ka `Āina: We understand the importance of one's sense of place and the holistic nature of health and wellbeing. Through integrative services we support the balance of body, mind, and spirit, while respecting one's cultural connectedness to the `āina of Hawai'i. Ka Mauli O Ka `Āina A He Mauli Kānaka: The Life of the Land is the Life of the People

Summary

The Cultural Health Patient Service Representative will provide a high level of customer service and promote a positive attitude to create a friendly, patient focused environment while helping to ensure efficient operations and patient flow. This position will perform a variety of tasks in an organized and efficient manner, to include but not limited to greeting and assisting patients with scheduling, verifying insurance, applying patients for cultural health insurance benefit programs, and maintaining and updating patient information. This position is responsible for assisting the Director of Cultural Health with patient education and patient management, while coordinating with the patient's primary care provider to ensure an integrated approach to care delivery.

Our healing practices connect to five key characteristics that are deeply associated with ALOHA. These foundational themes contribute to your growth and understanding in the perpetuation of Native Hawaiian healing practices:

Kaunānā- Perception: Paying attention with the mind, body, and spirit.

Mākaukau- Readiness: Foresight that comes from spiritual discipline.

Ha'aha'a- Humility: The bridling of the ego.

Ho'omaika'i Akahai- Respect: Foundational in healing and essential in Hawaiian healing traditions.

Ahonui- Patience: Accepting that everything will have its time, we cannot measure or have expectations of a patient or plant's process. Hawaiian healing is holistic in nature, a process and commitment that involves self, 'ohana, 'āina and Akua. It is the individual's responsibility to take an active role in their healing.
